John A. Fisher, veteran county school teacher, now retired can tell you a lot of things. Father Darkleaf gave him a lift from Concord into Lynchburg Tuesday—and I wished there had been more time to talk. He began teaching at Spout Spring in 1883—and that's a long time ago.

A friend writes in to tell attention to a paradox. He attended a cinema (movie to you), which treated, he relates, in masterful fashion of the groping attempt of mortal minds to arise to dignity, greatness and PEACE. . . . and then the feature was followed by a news reel that showed little else but marching soldiers in nation after nation. . . . Our correspondent adds: "The miserable hath no other medicine, but only hope." We add—hope that you and your family local Goodyear dealers. Mr. Burge's estimate is based upon a survey made recently by the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company to determine the number of unsafe tires in operation. The survey showed that one out of every three tires checked had been worn smooth and thin and was a real danger to motoring.

"Multiplying the number of passenger cars registered in the United States—approximately 22,000,000, by four and dividing by three, we get a total of 29,333,333 tires," explained Mr. Burge.

"This figure is ultra conservative because it takes into account only those thin slick tires. It does not include spares which are likely to be in a nearby garage. Nor have I ever seen LeRoy Smith excited or ruffled. . . . Mr. Earmon says the tourists will take drastic steps, and Mr. Hanenkrat added yesterday, "And if we'd been frightened enough to see the Surrender Flag, Appomattox would be built up densely from the depot to the Old Court House and we'd have a prosperous city."

Our special revival service which came to a close last Sunday were well attended, and we hope that the revival fire will continue to burn in our hearts. Remember we try to make our regular services just as inspiring, just as helpful as we can. So if you enjoyed the revival services you should enjoy worshipping here every Sunday.

It is regular worship and regular attendance upon Divine services that makes us happy and useful Christians.

A Reminder From Mecklenburg . . .
Down in Mecklenburg county, Virginia, the other day, two aged brothers and their nephews, all named Cannon, had approximately $30,000 hidden in an old safe in their dwelling.

Then came one of the most startling tragedies in Virginia history. Someone came in the dead of night and murdered the ENTIRE FAMILY and stole the $30,000. And even now, the murderers are not known.

Why play with tragedy? A bank is the place for your money, your securities, your valuable papers. Statistics prove that your money is 90% safer in a bank than in your home and your life and your family is 100% safer.

The Mecklenburg tragedy is a reminder. Bank your money—keep it safe. We welcome your account.

Father DARKLEAF'S Column
By C.H.R.

My man Friday, (Spiller Trent to you) year around arrives at our office at daybreak. He pilots his way down by lantern light and as the "gown" shows the mat to be near" he begins his daily task of brushing a and munging. Thus and so, about Sunday afternoon Spiller retired early. He awoke and convinced himself that even was about to bust—so he got up and dressed—lighted his trusty lantern and took out for work. But all the way down Court Street people walking along stopped him to break the news that it was still Sunday—only about 9:30 P. M.—and dawn was as far off as beer in Virginia. Spiller ambled around awhile, and then snuggled back to his house by the side of the road and for the second time retired. Spiller has been janitor here for 36 years and he was 40 when he got the job—so what's a few hours to him?

While our Col Flood was in Washington, one of the county's officials went up for a visit. A society lady, living in Washington, took an interest in him at a classy affair and in final asked, "And where were you educated, Mr. . . . ?" Quick as a flash he came back with "Out in an old field, madam!"

John A. Fisher, veteran county school teacher, now retired can tell you a lot of things. Father Darkleaf gave him a lift from Concord into Lynchburg Tuesday—and I wished there had been more time to talk. He began teaching at Spout Spring in 1883—and that's a long time ago.
